Volt

Soktas

The Volt is a hand blown, locally made and designed pendant from Soktas. Through traditional glass blowing techniques, the Volt evolves into an organic tear drop shape with smooth contours. Similarly, free-form shaping ensures no two Volts are ever identical, yet honed craftsmanship gives consistency with each piece created. Additionally, it is available in either a smoke or clear finish for a modern touch. Lamp holders are available in on trend metallic finishes including gold, copper, black and chrome. Personalise it to suit your vision! Suspend in void spaces, over island benches and dining tables or in retail fit outs; create a cluster or hang singularly.
